

The RRDA, in conjunction with the IDNR, promotes family and tourism through servicing our scenic Rock River and Hennepin Feeder Canal.

The feeder canal runs through Rock Falls connecting two of our largest parks and provides over 29.2 miles of pathway for walking, running, hiking, biking, and snowmobiling. The path is open for use throughout the year. The Rock River and feeder canal also provide great fishing, kayaking, canoeing, and bird watching. The setting is also ideal for photographers or just relaxing in the shade.

Come out! Get active! Promote! Enjoy the beautiful waterways!

Canal Annual Clean Up- Earth Day 2012
